You are a very special little bella, u are hella smart and you are funny, cause you are smart like that, you know you gotta be smart to be funny. You have a beautiful personality and you are super bright. We love bread and life is good man. I do miss my whittle sister, but well me in college now gotta do this thing, get a job and shabang you'll have a rich brother who can buy you expensive things, not like you love shopping but why not, jeje.
